PRESIDENT: 110 and 110A? Alright, the motion before the body is to read 110 and 110A. Senator Waldron.

SENATOR WALDRON: Mr. President and Members of the Legislature, we've made this motion before. This implements the constitutional amendment to--on the nominating commissions for the judges. That is, presently no judges can be appointed until we pass this bill. Senator Carsten, here he comes and he was a sponsor of this bill and he, I think he can adequately explain to you why it's needed. It only have a $13,000 fiscal impact. The bill has--should pass with the emergency clause but the appropriations, those who, if you vote to kill the appropriations, that's fine. It just means the Supreme Court would have to take out of their pocket or the money they got in other bills to pay for the postage that it's going to take to get these new members appointed to the judicial nominating commission.

PRESIDENT: Any further discussion of the motion? Senator Marsh, your light was on, then Senator Fred Carstens. Senator Marsh.
